

DR. A. LOIS KEITH
National Chair

The National Council of Negro Women (NCNW)

was founded in 1935 by Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune. NCNW's mission is to lead, advocate for and empower women of African descent, their families and communities.

NCNW will:

- Promote and recognize leadership among women of color
- Champion civil and human rights
- Reduce health disparities
- Celebrate and strengthen the African American family.
- Reach out to women in need in Africa and around the world.

NCNW is an "organization of organizations", a powerful network of more than two million women. NCNW is open to all persons without regard of gender, race, ethnicity, national origin, sexual orientation or socioeconomic status.

Do you want to become more involved in strengthening families, creating economic opportunity, and building healthy communities? If so, NCNW is for you. The community and campus-based sections of NCNW offer a positive, uplifting and supportive network of sisters (and brothers) who share a passion for NCNW's mission.
